TIPS

Use Visuals!

Pictures go a long way, add personality and capture attention fast! Feel free to use the MSGC logo as well. You can find it linked on the Resources page of our website.

Personalize it!

Talk about your experience, any meaningful or even silly stories! Share your progress, updates, lab, research, lessons, etc. Future MSGC applicants might even look to you for advice or guidance.

Tag it!

Please tag us in your posts so we can share and interact with them! Also, feel free to tag your affiliate University, department, companies or organizations that you think would be interested in or relevant as well. You never know when NASA will repost! Tagging also makes it easier for more people to learn, interact and join the conversation.
